

Frederick County Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Committee

Meeting Minutes

April 10, 2019

Committee Members	Staff	Guest
Darius Mark, Chair Shayne Boucher, Vice Chair Jerry Donald Risa Clem, John Fieseler, Adnan Mamoon, Xavier Bruce Lib Rood	Joe Kelley Ron Burns

Chair's Report: Meeting Called to Order at 6:03pm.

Welcome, Introductions and Announcements

Opening Day for Trails is April 13th. It was discussed about having possible opening day events in Frederick county next year.

Bike to Work Day May 17th was discussed with details on what is taken place in Frederick and connections to MTA. Everyone was encourage to register and to get others to do the same.

It was announced by John Fieseler that on March 8th Rails to Trail will announce around the country The Great American Rail Trail including locally on the U. S. Capitol Steps, the starting point of the trail.

Approval of Minutes

Minutes were approved for the March 13th meeting 8-0.

Developing Work Plans > Education <

The education work plan was introduce by Darius Mark and discussed by the committee. Numerous comments were made and a few corrections were inserted to the plan. It was decided to assign committee members with researching different scopes to address the education issue.

Sidewalk Prioritization

Sidewalk study for the Urbana, Ballenger Creek and Adamstown, and the prioritization of the different sidewalk projects were discussed. The how and why FCPS and DPW where selecting projects for the coming year was mentioned as well. The sidewalk study for the remaining county CGA's is on track for September.

Future Speakers

Conversation about future speakers involve invite guest from Maryland Highway Safety Office, League of American Bicyclist, Rails to Trails, Tim O'Donnell and other individuals and groups. The May meeting will have DPW personnel to discuss the Gas House Pike and Boyers Mill Road projects.

Future Events >BFB Workshop<

Darius Mark presented plans for a Bicycle Friendly Business Workshop at the end of May. The committee will be looking for business in the area who would attend.

Meeting was adjourn at 7:42pm