1. Introductions
2. Approval of minutes: Correction under Data update to move bullets ii-iv under Community Response and Protocol; delete extraneous "4" in list. Jessica Fitzwater moved to approve the minutes and Annie Jones seconded the motion. Minutes were approved.
3. Discussion of final report format
 - a. Group discussed possible formats and decided synthesizing recommendations into one "executive summary" list, followed by brief narrative including research and case studies, then more detailed explanation of each recommendation.
 - b. We must remain trauma-informed regarding use of survivor stories; we want to show challenges Frederick County has faced while respecting survivor stories and confidentiality.
 - c. Include list of guest speakers who came; quote of support from state task force; trainings attended by members.
 - d. Training and Community Response drafts will be completed as soon as possible and Heather will synthesize recommendations into a first draft report by November meeting.
4. Discussion of future function of task force.
 - a. Nina suggested beginning discussion tonight and emailing proposals to task force so we can make a final decision on structure of future task force at November meeting.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING TASK FORCE

- b. Annie discussed her recommendation of housing a Community Awareness committee under Human Relations Commission; our task force representations will discuss this idea with HRC this month.
 - c. Suggestion of creating a Multi-Disciplinary Team option with a lead agency to review cases and victim services.
 - i. Create MOUs and regular meetings (similar to SART, Fatality Review Boards)
 - ii. Ability to assess efficacy and implementation of screening tool
 - iii. Need for representation regarding labor trafficking as well
 - iv. A liaison from the MDT could be present at community meetings
 - d. Other suggestions
 - i. Frame it as a two-tiered approach (community awareness and MDT) to keep other community partners involved in efforts but not in case review
 - ii. Importance of MDT meeting regularly, perhaps a steering committee quarterly, and an annual public summit
 - e. Funding options
 - i. Could put a line item in for future funding
 - ii. Apply for grants
 - iii. Community Fundraising donations housed in a victim services fund accessible to certain providers who follow a request process
5. Public Comment
- a. Steve McAteer shared about the A21 Walk for Freedom on October 14th in Frederick (<http://www.a21.org/shop-event.php?intid=1468>)
6. Adjournment
