Day Trips: May 2019

Dill's Tavern: Tour & Lunch

The story of the Tavern (Dillsburg, PA) began in 1742 when the Dill family of Monaghan County, Ireland, received a land grant of 504 acres and set about establishing a wilderness settlement. In 1794 the stone structure that stands today as the core of Dill's Tavern and Plantation was built. In 1800 Leonard Eichelberger bought the property and doubled the size of the structure. After our tour of the tavern, we will enjoy a hardy lunch featuring "period food". All the food is homemade and is similar to the type of food that would have been served during the colonial times. <https://northernryorkhistorical.org/whowear/dills-tavern/>

Date: Wednesday, May 29

Registration closes Friday, May 16
