National Museum of African American History & Culture

The National Museum of African American History and Culture is the only national museum devoted exclusively to the documentation of African American life, history, and culture. The newest museum of the Smithsonian Institution was established by Act of Congress in 2003, following decades of efforts to promote and highlight the contributions of African Americans. Its Sweet Home Café showcases the rich culture and history of the African American people with traditional, authentic offerings as well as present-day food traditions. <https://nmaahc.si.edu/>

National Symphony Orchestra: A Holiday Pops

Enjoy this annual tradition, held at the Kennedy Center (Washington DC): complete with Santa, the joyful voices of The Choral Arts Society of Washington, and even "snow!" Warm your spirit with fresh takes on comforting classics and sing-along favorites in the festively decorated Concert Hall. This year, the NSO welcomes Leslie Odom, Jr., whose remarkable talents continue to inspire audiences across the globe, from his Tony®-winning role in Hamilton to singing "America the Beautiful" at the 2018 Super Bowl™. Steven Reineke will be the conductor. Our seats will be in 2nd Tier facing the stage. Feel free to bring opera glasses.

Hickory Bridge Farm

Since 1977, Hickory Bridge Farm (Gettysburg) has offered a comfortable, unique, family-style dining experience. The restaurant is located in a beautifully restored 165 year old barn highlighting family-style meals with fresh ingredients. Our meal begins with apple juice served from an antique sleigh. Once seated we'll enjoy salad with homemade bacon dressing. The menu includes roast pork tenderloin with sauerkraut, oven fried chicken, Crab Imperial, potatoes, vegetable blend, stewed apples, corn fritters and dessert...all passed "farm style". Coffee and tea are included. Soda and other beverages are available for individual purchase.
