This Month: A Message from Council President Bud Otis

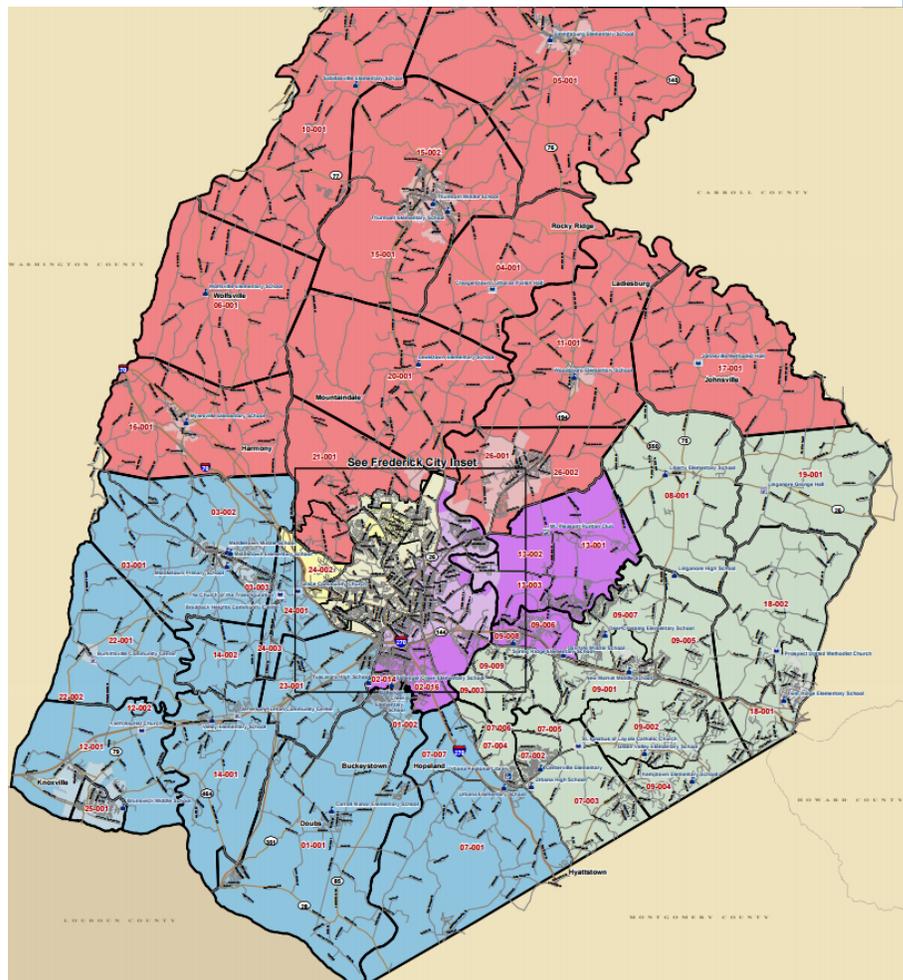

Welcome to the Frederick County Council's inaugural newsletter. In an effort to be open, transparent and responsive to the people of Frederick County, the County Council will use this newsletter as one of many tools to communicate with all our residents. It is also our plan to expand our messaging efforts through the use of more interactive sources on our County webpage as well as social media.

It is also essential that you share your thoughts and concerns with your County Council. We can all be reached at one email address (councilmembers@FrederickCountyMD.gov). This provides a one-stop easy access to every member of the County Council.

Over the coming weeks and months we will be utilizing this newsletter to communicate with you on important issues, areas of concern, upcoming events, and the various viewpoints of the different council members. It is the sincere hope of the entire County Council that you will read this timely and useful information and then to make your voice heard, by either attending a council meeting or at least contacting us.

So welcome to our first issue and enjoy.
